

Changed rules for roster and tryout dates 2021

Very important UPDATED information

Major changes have been made to SPBA rules for 2021. These changes will greatly affect your eligibility for teams in the 2022 baseball season. We need you to know so you are not sitting in the bleachers

SPBA designated AAA teams for the 2022 season for each division.

8U- None	12u- Windsor Stars and Riverside Royals
9u- None	13u- Windsor Stars and Riverside Royals
10u- Windsor Stars	14u- Windsor Stars and Riverside Royals
11u – Windsor Stars and Riverside Royals	15u- Windsor Stars and Riverside Royals

Only the listed above teams are permitted to have tryouts from September 7th, 2021, until September 17th, 2021

8u and 9u tryouts are from
September 17th, 2021, until May 1st, 2022

All other teams' tryouts are from
September 20th, 2021, until May 1st, 2022

Do you need a release to go to a Tryout.

All players can tryout for any SPBA local without a release during the listed dates above. Each team is limited to the number of import players they can roster for the season.

8U/9U – 0	14u/15u - 3
10u/11u – 2	16u/18u - Unlimited
12u/13u – 2	21u – Unlimited

*For the 2022 season all players listed on a team's 2021 roster will be legacies onto the team roster if the player remains actively rostered.

Any team roster that is not in compliance with the new SPBA rules will be denied. It is the responsibility of the coaching staff and local association to verify their team complies with all rules before officially offering a position to a player on the team. If knowingly or unknowingly a position is offered to a player which does not comply with SPBA rules, it will be the responsibility of the coach and local association to notify the player and refund all expenses.

SPBA is not responsible for any fee, uniform or equipment purchased that can not be used due to players being offered a position where they are removed due to a local association knowingly or unknowingly not complying with SPBA rules
